

NASPA FOUNDATION

2014-15 Annual Report

July 1, 2014 - June 30, 2015

Since 1973, student affairs professionals have been giving back to the profession through the NASPA Foundation. Gifts to the NASPA Foundation come back to the profession as research grants, scholarships and awards. Every NASPA member, from grad students to new professionals to faculty to administrators can benefit from and donate to the NASPA Foundation.

Many thanks to those who gave in 2014-15. For a full list of donors and more information about the NASPA Foundation, please visit www.naspa.org/foundation

The NASPA Foundation's Channing Briggs Small Grant inspired me to conduct "The National Study on Latino Male Achievement in Higher Education." This has provided me with a forum to engage student affairs educators, faculty, and policymakers in a dialogue about how to best support Latino male college students.

David Perez II, Grant Recipient

Having the opportunity to attend the BACCHUS general assembly has inspired me to redefine what it means to be a Peer Educator on my campus. The Foundation has given me the tools, passion, and confidence to succeed.

Ali Berkowitz, Scholarship Recipient

Through a Jim Rhatigan Fellowship, I was able to attend the 2015 NASPA Annual Conference. The NASPA Foundation has helped me stay connected and engaged with NASPA and within the field of higher education and student affairs.

Torrie Jackson, Scholarship Recipient

The NASPA Foundation underwrites NASPA's Research and Policy Institute 5 Things Issue Brief Series. Intended to be accessible, succinct, and informative, the briefs provide NASPA members with thought-provoking perspectives and guidance from current research on supporting student success in all its forms.

Thanks to you...

The Foundation also receives revenue from other sources, including special events and previous pledge commitments.

■ 2012-13 ■ 2013-14 ■ 2014-15

...the NASPA Annual Conference is more accessible because of the scholarships you help offer.

...NUFP students get to grad school with your help.

...student affairs professionals are more informed because of the research you fund.

...research grants help turn great ideas into best practice.

...undergrads get to experience the BACCHUS General Assembly.

...the best of the best are honored as Pillars of the Profession.

...SA pros doing great work as teachers, mentors and scholars are celebrated.

111 K St NE, 10th Floor | Washington, DC 20002 | 202-265-7500

For more information, visit www.naspa.org/foundation